PRESS RELEASE

NEW LAVOCE WEBSITE AND PRODUCT CATALOGUE

www.lavocespeakers.com

POTENZA PICENA, April 2017 – Lavoce Italiana, the transducer company with a heritage of over 30 years designing and manufacturing loudspeaker components, has launched a new elegant website for their professional audio transducers, together with producing their very first comprehensive product catalogue.

The new Lavoce website combines stylish design with simple navigation to enhance the user experience and find information quickly. There are detailed sections about the company, its engineering and production standards, and finding a distributor by country, whilst the product section now incorporates a logical feature selection option to easily search for relevant products, and dynamic one page product specification PDF's for easier comparison.

The new Lavoce product catalogue includes nearly one hundred industry leading products covering Neodymium and Ferrite LF midrange, woofers and subwoofers, Compression Drivers, Soft Dome Tweeters, Small Size Fullranges, Coaxials, and Bass Guitar and Guitar Speakers. Order your copy directly from Lavoce or through the website.
